

Invitation to the first National Care Service Forum

The Scottish Government is holding a big meeting called a forum about the National Care Service

It will take place on Monday 3rd October

It will start at 10.00am

It will finish at 2.00pm

It will be at Perth Concert Hall

The forum is for anyone that gets social care support and carers and staff as well

The Scottish Government will talk about their plans to develop the National Care Service and to involve other people in developing it
