

Working Together With Parents Network

Supporting Parents with Learning Disabilities

An Everyone's Children
Bite-Sized Briefing

8th of December 2017

The Albany Centre

Arrivals

Key Features of Supported Parenting

Andy Miller

Building the Key Features into your own practice

Oonagh Brown

Equal Say will discuss in more detail two of the key features

- Support designed to meet the needs of parents based on assessments of their needs and strengths
- Access to independent advocacy

Finish

We will provide you with a free copy of the 'Refreshed Scottish Good practice Guidelines for Supporting Parents with a Learning Disability' at this event.

Resources

There is a range of helpful resources available for supporting parents with a learning disability. Please follow the links below to access them.

Refreshed Scottish Good Practice Guidelines for Supporting Parents with a Learning Disability

Supporting Parents with Learning Disabilities in Scotland: Challenges and Opportunities

Working Together with Parents Network \(Bristol University\)

Working Together with Parents Network \(SCLD\)

For further details about The Working Together with Parents Network Contact Policy and Implementation Officer (Parenting) Oonagh Brown via email on Oonagh.b@sclد.co.uk