

Message from the First Minister

What is this easy read about?

This easy read is a message from the First Minister about the Coronavirus

Nicola Sturgeon is the First Minister of Scotland.

The Coronavirus means lots of changes in Scotland

This is a very difficult time for everyone

It is very difficult not seeing family and friends

It is very difficult having to stay at home

It is very difficult if we do not have enough money

Why is what we are doing important?

It is keeping us all safe from Coronavirus

It is keeping people who might get very ill safe from Coronavirus

It is helping NHS workers do their jobs

What is going to happen?

We do not know when the changes will stop

We need to remember things will get better

We will be able to see friends and family again

We will be able to go restaurants and cafes again

We need to keep staying at home and things will get better
