

Quick guide to using the app

Explore the town by moving around the map. You can swipe with your finger, use the arrows, or press 'Go to next location'. There are zoom buttons to zoom in and out too.

1. Look for pins on the map. Touching a pin will reveal a scenario

2. Each scenario describes a situation you might come across in real life. You can read the scenario or press the speaker icon to hear it read out loud

Supermarket

 Hear question read aloud

Paul works in a supermarket. Paul gets on well with customers and is very good at taking stock. But Paul finds parts of his job difficult like counting money. It sometimes takes Paul a bit longer than the other staff to

3. Then decide if you think the situation respects the person's human rights or not

Question: Are Paul's rights being respected?

YES NO NOT SURE

Click the faces above to select an answer.

Back to map

4. Select your answer and submit it

Question: Are Paul's rights being respected?

YES NO NOT SURE

Submit answer

Back to map

5. Afterwards you will see if you were right or not. You can also find more information about human rights on the information page.

Supermarket

 Hear question read aloud

Question: Are Paul's rights being respected?

 Hear answer read aloud

Answer: No. All the staff at the supermarket where Paul works should respect each

More information

Back to map

6. There are 25 scenarios, each with a question to answer

7. Once you've finished, you can share your score on social media!

