

SCLD accessible events on Learning Disability, Autism and Neurodivergence Bill Consultation

Online Event Invitation

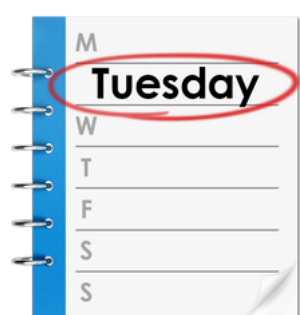

Why is it important for people with learning disabilities and those who support people to respond to this consultation?

Come along to this event if you would like to find out more about:

- What the Learning Disabilities, Autism and Neurodivergence (LDAN) Bill Consultation is about?
- Why should you respond to this consultation?
- SCLD will share our current thinking on the areas that we will respond to.
- SCLD will share resources to help you respond to the consultation.
- Share what plans you might have to respond to the consultation.
